

Reflection

After reading, watching and hearing about Good Samaritans today, find a comfortable space, play the accompanying reflective music and consider the questions below.

You may wish to respond through personal reflection and prayer, in discussions with others, through writing, drawing or any other creative medium.

There are many ways of being Good Samaritan. Professed Sisters, oblates, partners in ministry and members of the wider community all share in the spirit of the Good Samaritan Benedictine tradition.

'Belonging' is a basic human need. We all need to feel we 'fit in' somewhere.

- * How do the gifts you bring enliven the groups you belong to?
- * How are you enlivened by the gifts you receive by belonging?

This Good Samaritan narrative is a story of people trying to make a difference in the world.

- * What is it about the story that inspires you?
- * How might you consider being part of this ongoing story?
